Good Times & Good Eats!

We love Cracker Barrel—there's front-porch rocking, great shopping, and homestyle food all in one place! Outings like these remind us of the simple joys in life, including the company of our dear friends and neighbors as we gather around the table. Plus, the apple butter is the best around!

Betty Miller shops the wide selection of nostalgic goodies in the restaurant's country store.

Fay Garrison relaxes in one of Cracker Barrel's signature wooden rocking chairs.

Everybody loves going out on the town, especially when good food and good times abound.

Spook-tacular Fun... and Boo-tiful Costumes

Betty Hopkins added a fun twist to her witch costume with a sparkly wig.

When it comes to Halloween, the only things better than pumpkins and candy are the creative costumes. The life enrichment team organized a costume contest that gave everyone the opportunity to dress up as something fun, silly, or spooky for the day. It was a blast!

Contest winner Ruth Haverstrom gives a nod to Christmas in her reindeer costume.

"Samurai"
Cameron Tanous, Recreational Leader, hosted a costume contest for residents and team members.

An excited Caryl Mueser opted for an all-orange-and-black ensemble to celebrate.

Saying "Thank You" with Flair!

Our wonderful team was recognized during Employee Appreciation Week with a variety of special activities and celebrations. The longevity of our staff and their unwavering commitment to quality care is part of what makes our community so unique in the Charlottesville area. We are so grateful for all that they do!

Presenting Duty Free

Our Lady of Peace recently sponsored a free screening of the award-winning film Duty Free at the Center at Belvedere. The film examines ageism, the care crisis, and economic insecurity in America. The stars of the film—Sian-Pierre Regis and his mother Rebecca Danigelis—were in attendance to answer questions and meet with fans.

Resident Elaine Muntner attended the screening and said, "What an experience! I learned so much and it was such a treat to meet the mother and son in person."

Duty Free will also be shown in the Our Lady of Peace theater in December for residents who were unable to attend. Look for details on the activity calendar!

Celebrating a Legacy of Love

After 17 years of dedicated service, Executive Director Sara Warden is taking on a new role as regional director at our management firm, Coordinated Services Management (CSM). During her tenure, Sara led our team and supported residents with a humble heart, helping the community win countless awards and being honored herself as “Best Boss” in Charlottesville multiple times. Under her leadership, Our Lady of Peace experienced several expansions, navigated a global pandemic, and made priceless memories. We congratulate Sara on her new role at CSM, and while we will miss her daily presence, we are happy to know that she will visit often!

Sara is never afraid to pitch in where needed – even at a carwash fundraiser!

Sara leaves the community in the capable hands of her successor, Rachel Lindberg (shown together at Christmas 2019).
