Here Comes Santa Claus (Right Down Hillsdale Drive!)

Santa and Mrs. Claus made a special visit to the good boys and girls of Our Lady of Peace during Christmas. Santa's secret elves (the Peace staff) provided presents to the residents. Each gift was thoughtfully selected to match the personality and interests of the recipients, bringing smiles to all!

Molly Hill is thrilled with her new double-strand of pearls.

Lucille Leake opens her beautiful new scarf, and Larry Patchel - looking spiffy in red and green - shows off his new bird feeder.

Judy Gould shows friend Mavis Bledsoe her newly opened gifts.

Santa and Mrs. Claus (Rachel Lindberg and husband, Nick) pose with Liz DeLoach.

Lighting Up the Season

Our annual Christmas Tree lighting ceremony had a wonderful turnout despite chilly temperatures. The Our Lady of Peace choir sang an array of holiday songs led by Pastoral Counselor Obie Sue, while Joe Giovanelli accompanied on piano. That was followed by a stellar holiday performance by University of Virginia student group The Catholic Hoos.

Artistic Triumph

The Our Lady of Peace Art Show was a huge success. Paintings were created by residents with the help of Activity Assistant Cameron Tanous. Following the show, the activity team hosted a Happy Hour reception for the artists and friends. Guests enjoyed smoked salmon, various cheeses, crackers, fruit, and more while celebrating the many talented artists in our community.

Residents discuss their favorite pieces in the show.

A Job Well Done

Congratulations to Pam Butler, RN, LNHA, on her retirement from her role as Administrator! During her impressive 28-year tenure, Pam has been an invaluable member of the Our Lady of Peace team.

We are thrilled that Pam continues to work with us on a part-time basis using her clinical skills in our Quality Assurance Department.
