A Salute to Our Veterans

An Honor Celebration was recently held to commemorate Veterans Day and show gratitude to our amazing group of retired servicemen and women. The event was hosted jointly by Life Enrichment Director Sherry Beverage and Gentiva Hospice's Kate Daniels. Our Lady of Peace resident veterans spoke about their branch of the military, years of service, and where they were stationed. Each veteran received a U.S.A. pin and certificate.

The Boo Crew

A haunting costume party and spook-tacular treats were the perfect way to spend our Halloween. We had so much fun, it was scary! We also had a shy visitor who snuck into the background of some of our photos—can you spot him?

Community Relations Coordinator Lori Madison is a friendly witch alongside Director of Marketing and Admissions Dana Fulk, also known as the cutest pumpkin in the patch!

Oh no! Officer Trayvon Timberlake (who also serves on our dining team) gets ready to arrest Bob Barsalou.

Party People

When Eric Evans, Director of Maintenance and Environmental Services, wanted to host a barbecue to show appreciation for his wonderful maintenance and housekeeping teams, he decided that the Christopher Center courtyard would be the perfect location. Plus, Eric wanted to include the Christopher Center residents—the more, the merrier!

Gorgeous weather combined with Eric's cooking skills—the menu included everything from grilled chicken to burgers, hot dogs, and sides—made it the perfect day to party.

Residents showed up early to lunch to claim a great seat under the gazebo.

Shining Star

The annual STAR (Special Thanks And Recognition) Awards were hosted in September by our management group, CSM. The awards recognize the company's best and brightest team members at a special luncheon in their honor. Each CSM community nominates one outstanding employee. Our Lady of Peace's 2023 STAR nominee was Certified Nursing Assistant Brandy Bruce. Congratulations, Brandy, on your nomination, and thank you for your exceptional dedication to your residents and fellow team members!
