Love With All Your Heart

Love was in the air at Our Lady of Peace throughout February. Our Valentine's Social was a big hit as Bill Porter and his wife, Connie, led a sing-along around the piano. Fun snacks and drinks were also served.

On National Wear Red Day (February 6), the OLOP team formed a heart to help raise awareness of cardiovascular disease. Our team and residents continued to wear red every Friday in February to show our commitment to loving our hearts through healthy choices.

We "heart" our community!

Holiday Happenings

Our community was the place to be to celebrate the Christmas season. From parties and games to time with Saint Nick, there were many reasons to be thankful. Because spending time with those we love and making memories is what Christmas is truly all about!

Mary Ann Lucas, along with daughter Nancy and son-in-law Kevin, capture a precious family photo by the fireplace.

Ray Haas recites "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

The smiles on the faces of Millie Sandridge and Harold Hopkins as they show off their Christmas Bingo prizes show that they're truly young at heart.

Fat Tuesday Fun

We can't pass up a good party, and Mardi Gras is one of the best. Since we couldn't go to New Orleans in person, we brought the spirit of the Big Easy to the Depiro Room. This was the last day to feast and celebrate before the 40-day season of Lent, which is marked by fasting and reflection. We had a wonderful time enjoying Cajun crab dip, specialty breads, cupcakes, and more.

Behind the mask is Crystal Kennamer, and with her hat, balloons, and beads is a happy Shirley Mott!
